a tailender. However, to get out of last place Matty must beat out clubs which now have percentages around .470, and that is a stiff assignment.

To-day is one of those freak days in New York when no game is billed on the Poio Grounds. It is the only open date this year. Several years ago we had such a day, and the baseball writers planned a little holiday, when Frank Farrell filled it in with a double header with the Red Sox. But to-day we are as free as the air.
